China Through the Eyes of a Seychellois Photography Competition

The Chinese Embassy of Seychelles is proud to launch its first photography competition titled "China Through the Eyes of a Seychellois" in celebration of the 2014 Spring Festival.

China has always been one of the key partners in the development of Seychelles and its people, be it through education, tourism and many other areas that have benefited Seychelles and China likewise.

This competition aims to portray China in every aspect, it can be by landscape photos, portraits, city scapes...etc...Photography as a means of communication can be expressed in many ways thus the reason for the given title. It will totally depend on the photographer what he or she would like to portray. The competition is open to Seychellois national of any age that has traveled to china be it to study, for business or for holidays.

Take part and be a winner of exciting prizes that will be announced in mid January 2014. The winners will be awarded during the Spring Festival celebration.

We look forward to your participation and contribution to make 2014 Spring Festival celebration a memorable and inspirational one not only for the Chinese but for you that has experienced Chinese cultures and traditions even if it was only for few days or for years. Share with others your experiences through photography and let them dream in visiting this great country too.
